

This is my library

The Lake Bluff Public Library

I visit the library with my parent or caregiver and make sure to stay with them while at the library.

When I go downstairs to the children's department, I will be greeted by the friendly librarian at the desk.

Use the youth activity room as a quiet space if I need to.

At the library I can...

Check out books, movies or CDs, audiobooks, puzzles, Launchpads or STEAM/STEM kits.

When it is time to check out, I will go upstairs with my adult to the circulation desk.

I will give my library card to the librarian and then I will give them my items to check out.

When I am ready to return my items, I can return them in the book drops outside of the library or return them at the circulation desk.

When I am finished at the library I will say goodbye, but I know that I can come back another day!
